

The Porterhouse Medical Group

The Porterhouse Medical Group is a scientific and medical communications network with a reputation for excellence. We work with some of the biggest pharmaceutical companies in the world, helping them to connect with a global audience of healthcare professionals and patients. We have seen continued growth over the past 18 years and recently secured new business wins on both a national and a global level. In 2016, Porterhouse Medical received the Queen's Award for Enterprise (the UK's highest accolade for outstanding achievement in business) in the International Trade category, and in 2019 we were delighted to be awarded with the Investors in People accreditation at the Gold level, which is a world-recognised standard that reflects the very best in people management excellence.

Our employees include editors, medical writers, account managers and designers, who work together on a variety of projects to ensure they are completed to the highest standard for our clients. We demand excellence from our staff but also foster a relaxed, friendly and supportive working environment, where teamwork is an everyday occurrence.

Porterhouse Pathfinders Graduate Internship Programme (12 weeks) – Reading, UK

We are offering a 12-week internship for a bright, enthusiastic life sciences graduate with a passion for science and communication. The successful candidate will benefit from the opportunity to experience the workings of a successful medical communications agency first-hand. In addition to gaining experience of industry-specific tools and processes while providing general support to our medical writers and account managers, the successful candidate will undertake their own project, guided by a member of our team.

Requirements

Life sciences graduate (2:1 or above)

Salary

£3,750 for the 12-week internship.
