

The Porterhouse Medical Group

The Porterhouse Medical Group is a scientific and medical communications network with a reputation for excellence. We work with some of the biggest pharmaceutical companies in the world, helping them to connect with a global audience of healthcare professionals and patients. We have seen continued growth over the past 16 years and recently secured new business wins on both a global and a national level. In 2016, Porterhouse Medical was recognised with the Queen's Award for Enterprise – the UK's highest accolade for outstanding achievement in business.

Our employees include medical writers, account managers and designers, who work together on a variety of projects to ensure they are completed to the highest standard for our clients. We demand excellence from our staff but also foster a relaxed, friendly and supportive working environment, where teamwork is an everyday occurrence.

Porterhouse Pathfinders Creative Internship Programme (12 weeks) – UK office

We are offering a 12-week internship for a design superstar with creative flair and a keen eye for detail. This opportunity is open to someone who is keen to learn new things and is interested in graphic and web design as well as video and animation. The successful candidate will benefit from the opportunity to experience first-hand the workings of an award-winning medical communications agency. In addition, they will gain experience of industry-specific tools and processes, and provide creative support to our medical writers and account managers.
